

REYES HOLDINGS ACQUIRES KING PROVISION'S JACKSONVILLE LOCATION

April 24, 2006

ROSEMONT, IL April 24, 2006 - Reyes Holdings, L.L.C. announced an agreement to acquire the assets of King Provision's Jacksonville Florida location.

The Jacksonville Florida location will become an extension of Reyes Holdings Reinhart FoodService company, extending its service to customers in Florida, southern Georgia and South Carolina as well as International customers in Central America, South America, Europe, the Middle East, and the Pacific Rim.

Reinhart FoodService is a leading broadline foodservice distributor and one of Burger King and Subway's largest distributors in the US. Delivering more than 90 million cases of product to over 26,000 customers a year, Reinhart FoodService customers benefit from one-stop shopping with prompt service of over 30,000 SKUs comprising the best national brands and Reinhart exclusive products including, fresh beef, pork, poultry, seafood, produce, dairy, coffee, juice and dry groceries, deli and bakery supplies, glassware, china and utensils, paper, disposables and foodservice equipment.

King Provision's Al Juodvalkis and the rest of the company's current management team will continue to lead the organization as Reinhart FoodService's 15th and newest division.