

REYES HOLDINGS ANNOUNCES AGREEMENT TO ACQUIRE FOOD SERVICES OF AMERICA'S OMAHA BRANCH

AUGUST 1, 2006

ROSEMONT, IL, August 1, 2006 - Today, Reyes Holdings, L.L.C. announced that it had acquired the Omaha branch of Food Services of America, Inc. (FSA) which will join the Reinhart FoodService, L.L.C. (RFS) business.

"Food Services of America and Reinhart FoodService have always enjoyed a supportive alliance through our Distribution Market Advantage (DMA) partnership," said Tom Staley, CEO of FSA. "We are confident that this change in ownership will provide significant opportunities for our Omaha branch business, its customers and employees."

Mark Drazkowski, Reinhart FoodService President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "Incorporating the FSA Omaha branch into the Reinhart FoodService organization is a unique opportunity for a seamless transition due to FSA's solid infrastructure and our marketplace strength in the Midwest."

The FSA Omaha branch acquisition includes a refrigerated 125,000 square foot warehouse in Omaha, extending RFS distribution in Nebraska, South Dakota, Iowa, Kansas, and Missouri.

Jude Reyes, Co-Chairman of Reyes Holdings, said, "We welcome everyone from Food Service of America's Omaha branch to Reyes Holdings, and we look forward to working with FSA's suppliers to provide unrivaled service to existing customers."
