

REYES HOLDINGS BEER DIVISION EXPANDS WITH THE ACQUISITION OF GATE CITY BEVERAGE DISTRIBUTORS

March 2, 2007

ROSEMONT, IL – March 2, 2007, Reyes Holdings, L.L.C. announced the acquisition of Gate City Beverage Distributors in Indio, California, which sells over 10,400,000 cases of Miller, Corona, Heineken, Guinness and a variety of other brands, each year.

Gate City Beverage Distributors includes two warehouses, each in the fast-growing and highly desirable Pacific Inland Empire of Southern California; one warehouse is in Indio and the other is in San Bernardino serving the Riverside market.

"Gate City Beverage Distributors and the Aronoff family have a long history of serving more than 4,000 retail customers in Southern California. We are proud to welcome the experienced staff of Gate City Beverage Distributors to the company and we look forward to growing the business together," said Tom Reyes, President Harbor Distributing.

The transaction is effective today with Gate City Beverage Distributors officially joining Reyes Holdings L.L.C.
